Canadian Rocky Mountain Resorts' Tempting New Spring Packages

Banff, AB.-Canadian Rocky Mountain Resorts would like everyone to have the opportunity to witness springtime blossoming in the Rockies this year. To make this happen, CRMR has developed different packages to cater to everyone's tastes.

For the gourmand, there is the delectable Savour the Rockies Package, which provides guests with a copy of CRMR's internationally acclaimed cookbook, Simple Treasures, a gift of the company's signature homemade Mustard Melons to take home, as well as one night accommodation and breakfast. The package was created with foodies in mind, who want to getaway but are still looking for that unique twist on the typical weekend escape. If the package is booked for the nights of May 30th or May 31st, the package can be enhanced to include tickets to The Rocky Mountain Wine & Food Festival in Banff, happening that weekend.

For the more budget-minded traveller, Canadian Rocky Mountain Resorts is offering residents of Alberta and the rest of Western Canada the chance to experience the beauty of springtime in the Rockies at a reduced room rate, with the Western Canada Special. One night accommodation is available for a lower rate than normally offered, as long as guests have identification indicating they live in Western Canada. This special rate offers the perfect excuse to escape the hectic pace of the city and head for the Rockies, to luxurious accommodations and breathtaking scenery, without breaking the budget.

Just as springtime won't last, both of these packages expire May 31st. Savour the Rockies and the Western Canada Special-whether you have never been to the mountains or ski there every weekend, now there is no excuse to miss spring in the Rockies! Visit www.crmr.com for more information.
