

‘True Mountain Lodging’ Meets Hollywood Glamour

Emerald Lake Lodge Shines in The Bachelorette June 22

Field, BC, June 18. 2009-Monday, June 22 2009, Canadian Rocky Mountain Resorts’ jewel of the Rockies, Emerald Lake Lodge, will be one of the locations featured in the newest episode of The Bachelorette. The ABC show, which has a loyal following of viewers eager to see Jillian find true love, was a natural fit as a place long recognized by visitors as one of the most romantic destinations in the Rockies.

“From the outdoor hot tub which has a view of the vibrant emerald-coloured lake, to the signature Rocky Mountain Cuisine created by Chef Valerie Morrison and Executive CRMR Chef Alistair Barnes, this is a place that is just quintessentially romantic,” explains Lisa Vinderskov, Director of Sales and Marketing for Canadian Rocky Mountain Resorts. “Many of our guests have fallen equally in love with the mountains here at Emerald Lake Lodge as they have with each other-it’s everything you imagine when picturing the perfect romantic destination”

Fans of Emerald Lake Lodge and The Bachelorette will be glued to their televisions this Monday to watch the romance unfold at the historic and peaceful Emerald Lake Lodge.

Emerald Lake Lodge is in Field, British Columbia, just 20 minutes west of Lake Louise, Alberta. The nearest airport is the Calgary International Airport, and it is approximately a three hour drive from Calgary.
